

TERMS OF THE ERASURE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

EFFECTIVE JULY 17, 2019

Your rights are in relation to personal data

You have the right to:

- access your personal data;
- to correct inaccurate or untrue personal data, and;
- to seek explanation in the event of a suspicion that the processing of personal data adversely affects the protection of your personal and private life or that your personal data are processed in contradiction with applicable law;
- demand the remedy of a situation that is contrary to the law, in particular by stopping personal data processing or by correction, completion or removal of your personal data;
- erasure of your personal data if no longer necessary for the purposes for which they were collected or otherwise processed, or if it is discovered that they were processed unlawfully;
- restriction of the processing of personal data;
- to data portability;
- to object after which the processing of your personal data will be terminated unless it can be shown that there are serious legitimate reasons for such processing which prevail over the interests or rights and freedoms of yours, in particular, if the reason is the possible enforcement of legal claims.

We may ask you to verify your identity and to provide other details to help us to respond to your request. These rights will be limited in some situations; for example, where we are required to process your personal data by EU or EU member state law. To exercise these rights or if you have questions about how we process your personal data, please contact us using the contact details ask@eduson.tv. We hope that we can satisfy any queries that you may have about the way we process your personal data.
